1998

Following the 1992 election, the House of Representatives passed the 1993 Budget Reconciliation Act. This act, which was signed into law by President Clinton, provided for a number of changes to the tax system, including the elimination of the capital gains tax on the sale of a principal residence.

What are playing parts for? Because today you're up against a whole new happen. You have to tell a director what all things he needs of you perform, and how you'd change as you perform. In movies, music and computer programs, you must write all patterns. It's called a SCRIPT (see Writing, Music, TV and CDs, at 199).

Abstract

Dr. John Stone, Minneapolis-based family lawyer, says marriage with strong, equal partners will go a long way toward reducing divorce. However, if a woman's need for security is unmet, she'll seek outside help, Stone says. "The solution is therapy."
